

Please do not grant an exception to the Consumers Banking Association to weaken the Indiana Telephone Privacy Act. It is so comforting to not have telemarketers calling at all times. It would defeat all purpose to change this outstanding law.